

The Authors' Foundation was established in 1984 to mark the centenary of the Society of Authors. It has been generously supported by authors, charitable trusts and the Royal Literary Fund. The Foundation provides grants to writers to assist them while writing books. There are two rounds of grants each year, awarded in the summer and in the winter.

DEADLINE: 1 APRIL 2019

ELIGIBILITY You may apply if

1. You have been commissioned by a commercial British publisher to write a full-length work of fiction, poetry or non-fiction and need funding (in addition to the publisher's advance) for important research, travel, or other more general expenditure; or
2. You are without a contractual commitment by a publisher but have had at least one book published commercially by a British publisher, and there is a strong likelihood that your next book will be published in Britain.

CONDITIONS OF ENTRY

- No author may apply to the Foundation twice in the same year. Successful applicants may not normally apply to the Foundation within four years of receiving an award.
- Grants will not be awarded to cover publication costs.
- Editors, translators and screenwriters are not eligible.

HOW TO APPLY Application is made by email. Please attach your application in .doc or .pdf format. Please include the following:

1. In the body of your email, please provide an 80-100 word summary briefly explaining the project you are requesting funding for, and a short outline of your current financial position.
2. In your attached letter, please include the following:
 - i. Full details of the book on which you are working
 - ii. Brief information about yourself and your books; please give your real name in addition to any pen-name.
 - iii. Details of any publisher's advance received or due (the size of any advance may be taken into consideration by the assessors)
 - iv. The names of publishers contacted. If you have not approached any publishers with your project, please explain why not
 - v. A brief outline of your financial position, specifying the sum needed, with reasons (NB: Most grants range between £3,000-£3,500 and occasionally £5,000-£6,000.)
 - vi. Details of any grants you have received in the last three years.
3. Please also attach copies of a few reviews of your work, if available (not more than 3 or 4).

Please include your postal address, email and telephone number on your application.
